

Student project Exhibition

“Urban Mobility: Design for Pedestrian”

Design Studio VII: Department of Architecture

Student project Exhibition on “Urban Mobility: Design for Pedestrian” began on 8th May at Gyantapas Abdur Razzaq Bidyapeeth. Participants are the students of Department of Architecture from Daffodil International University, State University of Bangladesh, Bangladesh University, Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET), University of Asia Pacific. The two-day exhibition was initiated with a Seminar and the discussion topic concentrated on the traffic and pedestrian consideration in mass transit design. Then Students of Design Studio VII, Department of Architecture, DIU presented their class project before the audience. Architect Swarajit Bony from BUET shared his final year thesis project on walkable city at Rajshahi. Architect Rashed Chowdhury (Founding Partner, Dehsar Works) shared their urban project commissioned by DSCC, Dhaka and presented their ideas currently they are working in their firm. Architect and Urban Designer Prof. Qazi Azizul Mowla, BUET being chief guest shared his view on topic and on the presentation showed. Then the book launching happened. The program ended with note of thanks by Sk. Md. Rezwan, exhibition coordinator and Sr. Lecturer, DoA, DIU. The program was organized by Daffodil International University, Friedrich Naumann Stiftung: Für die Freiheit and Bengal Practice Studio. Works shall be exhibited till 9th May from 10am to 7pm.

Exhibition of Student project at Gyantapash
Abdur Razzaq Bidyapeeth

DIU student's presentation